SUBSCRIBERS

READ THIS.

For the small sum of one dollar you are entitled to one year's subscription to the Sheet Music Weekly, during which you get fifty-two pieces of Sheet Music at an average cost of less than two cents for each piece. Never before, anywhere, or by anybody, has Music been furnished to the public at so low a price, and you know that the quality of the paper, the printing and the class of Music that we are furnishing is superior to any so-called cheap edition now in the market.

During the past four months we have given you seventeen pieces, among which is one that has never been published for less than $1.00; one that has never been published for less than 75 cents; five that have never been published for less than 50 cents each; one that has never been published for less than 40 cents; and six that have been published in 10 cent editions. This is equivalent to receiving Music worth $4.75 during one-third of your subscription, or, in other words, $4.75 for 34 cents.

We cannot be expected to continue this unless we are encouraged in this departure by our subscribers, for it is impossible to give so much for so little money except in very large quantities. For this reason we ask you, as one of our subscribers, to go among your friends and neighbors and obtain for us three yearly subscribers at $1.00 each, send us their names and addresses, together with $2.00, keeping the other dollar for your trouble.

If every one of our subscribers would do this, it would quadruple our circulation, and we should be able not only to continue doing in the future as we have in the past, but still better. Do not you put this off, or pass it by, thinking that enough others will take care of this matter to accomplish the desired end. If all of our subscribers were to reason thus we would get no response whatever.

Undoubtedly some of you may be unable, for various reasons, to obtain such subscribers. To such we make the following

SPECIAL OFFER TO MAY 15th, 1898.

Send us $2.00 by Money Order, bank check, or bills in registered letter, and we will extend your own subscription one full year from the date on which it expires, and also send you at once any fifty-two numbers of the pieces named on the last page of the sheet of Music on which this announcement is printed. Letters containing orders mailed not later than May 15th, 1898, will be entitled to the above Special Offer.

We hope you will act at once upon one of these two propositions which we again repeat in order that there may be no possible misunderstanding:—

FOR $2.00

We will send the Weekly Journal of Sheet Music one full year to each of three subscribers;

FOR $2.00

—♦ OR ♦—

Will extend your own subscription ONE FULL YEAR from the time when it expires, and send you any fifty-two pieces that you may select from the list which is printed on the last page of this piece of music. In either case we pay all postage to any part of the United States, Canada or Mexico.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo/mood is marked 'Legato.' and there is a section symbol (§). The piano accompaniment starts with a series of chords in the right hand and a moving line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the second measure. The lyrics are as follows:
